MONTH OF JUNE IS ANTICIPATED BY THE WINGED GOD

May usurped the rights of June in the matter of announcements, the month having been notable for the list of engagements made public that occasioned per-nuptial entertainment and made lively what might otherwise have been a rather dreary season. There was reason to believe for a time, too, that the past month would be the month of brides but June will come into her own with a surprising number of events. One of the most interesting weddings of the season will be that of Miss Marion Dorris, daughter of Mr. and C. D. Dorris to Dr. Harry Carson which will take place shortly. Only the most intimate friends will be present at the service which will be read at the Dorris home on North First avenue. Miss Dorris has declined the many attentions which her friends planned in her honor and except for an occasional dinner is not attending any social events before her marriage. Another wedding of interest which, however, will not take place in the autumn, will be that of Miss Pleasant Louise Stoeber to Smith Pickrell which was announced by Miss Stoeber's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Von Hoff Stoeber at their home in Chester, Pa. recently. Miss Stoeber who is a graduate of Miss Wright's school at Bryn Mawr is an exceptionally attractive girl, charming in appearance and manner. She was a great favorite when she visited here last winter the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. F. Ainsworth. Mr. Pickrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pickrell and prominent and popular in society. He is connected with the Fred Cashion Land and Cattle company.

Popular Young Folk To Marry On Tuesday

The wedding of Miss Lucile Tisdale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tisdale and Robert Cummings will be an event of high noon on Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents on North First street. Only a few intimate friends will be present at the ceremony and at the wedding breakfast which will be a pretty appointed affair. Miss Ruth Tisdale will be her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. After a brief honeymoon the young folk will take up their residence in Christmas where Mr. Cummings being connected with one of the leading mines in the district. Miss Tisdale has been the guest of honor at numerous events since the announcement of her engagement several weeks ago.
